Hello Raul,

Thank you for letting me know! I have added this agency to your login.

I am working on having a specific "achc.org" URL created for you to give your clients. When your clients use it to create their login and submit the application, it will come directly to me. This way I can immediately add it to your login, add your discount code, and make sure that our "Policy Review Not Required For Survey" button is clicked (since your Policies & Procedures are already approved).

As soon as I have it created, I'll send you the URL to provide to your clients. Is this alright with you?

Have a great day!

Brittany
